

What do I do?

I am a Family Engagement Officer.

My role is to build strong connections between families, schools and the wider community to support children's learning and wellbeing.

I talk to children and parents to find out:

- What's important to them
- What they are good at
- What they do or don't enjoy at school / at home
- What they might need a little bit of help with

About me

- I used to work as a teacher
- I love meeting families, because they are always very interesting and I always learn things from them
- My friends say that I am kind and a good listener
- I love helping people

What we might do together

There are lots of different things that we might do.

This could be:

- Having a chat
- Doing some creative activities on your own or with a group
- Welcoming your parents into school to do things together.
- Have some fun in the local community.

It's totally up to you whether you would like to meet with me. If you are not sure then you could speak to your teachers or your parents.

If you have any questions then I'd be happy to try and answer them.

I look forward to meeting you soon and finding out more about you

My hobbies

- I love animals and enjoy taking my Jack Russell on long walks
- I love baking (and eating the treats That I make)
- Travelling and exploring new places

Let's play...2 truths and 1 lie!

1. I have eaten crocodile meat
2. I sing at the top of my voice when I'm driving
3. My dog is called Loulou

Which is the lie?
